DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Agatha Christie is the World's best selling novelist. She is considered the queen of crime. Of all of her stories, Murder on the Orient Express surely rates as her most produced and popular. Penned in 1934, it has been heard on radio, seen on the big screen and now finally a stage play. Set on a true legend of the time, The Orient Express. A standard of luxury travel we will never see again. The Orient Express continues its journeys today. The train remains a symbol of luxury and exuberance.

We are honored to have the Orient Express pull into The Actor's Charitable Theatre this evening. We have worked with passion to take you all on a memorable journey.

Prepare yourselves for mystery, thrills and murder.
Tous a bord! All aboard!
